Bringing Humour and Light to Heavy Topics

How do you motivate and inspire your people when things feel heavy? You need some light!

Drawing from her years of experience as an internationally award-winning stage performer, Jenny will entertain, delight and inspire your people with on-point messaging to help them deal with uncertainty, burn-out and curve-balls.

A Keynote with Jenny will:

- re-energise your people and boost morale;
- help shift your teams from feelings of defeat and helplessness to hope and determination; and
- get people laughing so they're more receptive to adopting strategies for a positive mindset.

"Jenny was a breath of fresh air at our leadership day. She was highly engaging, entertaining, hilarious, and provided some very practical and tangible advice that our employees could take away and apply to their day to day work."
Renee Bligh, P&C Manager, Arnott's Group

"Jenny blew us away. If you don't yet know about the wondrous talent that is Jenny Wynter – do yourself a favour and catch a show or book her as a speaker."
